

Summer has come to a screeching halt and Fall has started. Our summer production of "Annie" was very well done thanks to the creative talents and hard work of director, Mary Horman. She brought together a crew and cast that provided capacity crowds a production to long remember. Wow!! We started immediately after that to plan and audition for "Fiddler on the Roof" and now it is coming time for performance.

We have a great season planned for you with our classic musical, "Fiddler on the Roof" opening our season. Lots of new people are involved in this show with a cast of over 40 people. Producer Glen Hamilton has been busy organizing this show since last spring. Our set was designed by Bob Stucker, who now resides in Florida, and has done this show many times before so we are lucky to have his talents. Glen has even acquired authentic wagon wheels from the Amish to create Tevye's dairy cart. The set crew is very busy bringing barn siding together to make an authentic looking house. Elizabeth Gibson continues to provide us with motivating direction for our music and characterization while Jennifer Knapp does the choreography after researching dance for this era. Of course our director, Kevin Wietrzykowski, gives that magic of staging and design that put a fantastic show together. Every show takes many more to create the end production, and Fiddler is no exception. Many people are busy volunteering their time to make sure everything comes together for the audience to enjoy. So get your RESERVED seats soon as this is a popular show!

The two remaining shows promise to be entertaining as well with "Wait Until Dark", a thriller, and "Don't Hug Me" a Minnesota couple bringing a karaoke machine into their bar to improve business!

Many thanks to all those who supported our September fundraiser with the Wine Tasting/Auction. It gave us the funds to improve upon our sound system, continue our scholarships for graduating seniors, and do community outreach. Tim Yard and Ken Ankele did the spot lighting for the Toledo awards event "20 Under 40" as volunteers for OCT. I will be managing our table at the Senior Wellness day at the East YMCA to spread the word of our group among Senior Citizens. I have also had the opportunity to speak to the local Kiwanis group and will be meeting with the Rotary Club in December.

As always we encourage you to get involved in any way you would like. If you are not sure what you might want to do, call me and believe me we will find something for you! Remember the best buy is our Season Ticket at $25 for all THREE shows!!!

See you at the shows,
